I hereby enclose bids for a few coins at the sale of the Risse Collection this week. I don't know much about this way of buying, but I suppose that you don't go up to the bid-dere limit, unless competition necessitates it. As I haven't established a credit with you, and if any of the coins I have bid on, would come my way, you will please mail me on account and I will remit for same by Money Order.

Your offer of the Platinum 6 Rouble for $17. I regret to say, I can not accept at present, as the party, that was going to have it, is out of Town at present and won't be back for some time. I may order it, when he comes back, provided it isn't sold then.

Very respectfully

G. A. Carey

Gentlemen:—

I herewith enclose some bids for coins in the Hills collection which I wish you would kindly execute for me at the sale. There are a few other coins that I would like to bid on but as I don't know what to bid on those with any view of success, I wish you would be kind enough and advise me. The numbers are 1635, 1638, 1647, 1651, 1662 and 1663. And please tell me at the same time if you think the bids are to low on any of those on the sheet.

I wish you would kindly reply in letter – not on postalcard – as I share my mailbox with some other party. I enclose stamps for that reason.

Respectfully yours

G. A. Larson

Gentlemen:—

I'm just in receipt of your Catalogue for the Barker Sale to be held July 7 & 8th next and I also enclose bids for a few pieces from same.

If you think that I am too low on any of them, please inform me by return mail. (No postals!) I would also like to have an idea what lot 1559 — the Siamese ballet money — would be likely to sell for. If not too high I may bid on it.

Very respectfully Yours

Gentlemen:—

Some days ago I received a letter from you that the gentleman, who bought the set of Siamese ballot money at the Barker sale, had failed to take it away and that it was at my disposal for $16.00

After considering your offer, I have decided to accept it and enclose Money Order for the amount.

In reference to your offer to send me some fine crowns on approval, I express my appreciation, but for the present I'm so busy, that I haven't much time to give to matters numismatic. However, when cold weather sets in I will have more time to spend on my "hobby" and would be glad to have some on approval.

How soon will your next sale come off?

Respectfully Yours
